

Thursday 21st May

12:00 – 14:00	Registration and Buffet Lunch
14:00 – 14:10	Introduction and Welcome	Richard Haynes
14:10 – 14:35	What have clinical trials in IgAN delivered and where do we go next?	Jonathan Barratt, University of Leicester
14:35 – 15:00	ORION-4 update	Louise Bowman
15:00 – 15:30	The rebirth of CETP-inhibition	John Kastelein, University of Amsterdam
15:30 – 15:45	Refreshments – Tea and Coffee
15:45 – 16:15	What side effects do statins cause? Results from an individual participant data meta-analysis	Kirsty Reith
16:15 – 16:45	EASi-KIDNEY trial update	Parminder Judge
16:45 – 17:15	PISCES: Keeping it reel	Charmaine Lok, University Health Network, Toronto
19:00 – 20:00	Drinks Reception
20:00	Dinner

Friday 22nd May

07:00 – 08:45	Registration and Breakfast
09:00 – 09:05	Introduction and Welcome	Louise Bowman
09:05 – 09:30	Streamlining randomised trials by re-using healthcare systems data: Validation of major vascular events in a secondary prevention population	Charlie Harper
09:30 – 09:55	Recent learnings from clinical trials in atrial fibrillation and in myocardial infarction: how to synthesize guideline-changing evidence	Dan Atar, University of Oslo
09:55 – 10:15	Remote screening for asymptomatic atrial fibrillation: the AMALFI randomized clinical trial	Rohan Wijesurendra
10:15 – 10:30	Refreshments – Tea and Coffee
10:30 – 11:00	Weight loss medicines: what do we know and where are we going?	Naveed Sattar, University of Glasgow
11:00 – 11:30	Investigating the effects of oral semaglutide in 20,000 participants with diabetes – an update for the ASCEND PLUS trial	David Preiss
11:30 – 12:00	Lipid lowering therapy in pregnancy	Kate Shipman, University Hospitals, Sussex
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch

Speakers are from CTSU unless otherwise stated