

We hope the information below will help you plan your journey to the Meeting. The venue for the Meeting is in the West Wing of the Hilton London Metropole Hotel (HLM) which is located on Harbet Road, close to Edgware Road tube station and Paddington train/tube station and is easily accessible by public transport. All accommodation is also within the HLM.

Further information about the venue is available on the Hilton London Metropole website.

Getting to the West Wing of HLM by London Underground:

You can plan your tube journey online using the Transport for London website plan-a-journey and London Rail and tube services map.

It is now possible to pay for your travel on the Underground by touching your contactless card on a yellow card reader to start a journey Tube fares/payments. Note that a ticket will not be issued with this method of payment.

Paddington train / tube station (Circle and Hammersmith & City lines)

If you are flying to London Heathrow airport, the Heathrow Express train to Paddington is the fastest way to arrive at the venue. The walk from Paddington station to the West Wing of the HLM is a simple route and should take less than 10 minutes.

- On disembarking from the train, head for the Main entrance/exit of Paddington Station and take the Praed Street exit.
- At the end of the road turn left onto Praed Street (do not turn right at the junction towards the Hilton London Paddington Hotel as this is not the meeting venue).
- Continue on Praed Street past St Mary's Hospital on your left.
- Turn left into Harbet Road.
- The West Wing is the second entrance to the hotel on your right where coaches and buses may be parked outside.
- Go through the entrance to the West Wing where you will see the Registration desks to the left.

Edgware Road Tube station (Circle, District and Hammersmith & City lines)

Getting to The HLM by Train

You can plan your train journey to London online using the National Rail Enquiries website National rail.

Paddington is the nearest mainline train station to the venue but there is easy access via other train stations in London.
